SUPREME CHAPLAIN'S MONTHLY CHALLENGE

“If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always.” (Gospel for June 8, Jn 14:15-16)

Last month, we reflected on how Jesus probed Peter three times with the question “Do you love me?” Here we have an answer to what it means to truly love Jesus — by keeping his commandments, as expressed in Scripture and in the teachings of the Church. The monthly challenge for March underscored how our faith bears fruit in what we do. Let us remember that to keep the commandments for love of Christ is to allow the Holy Spirit to bear good fruits in our lives.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to use the Catholic Information Service® resource A Guide to Confession, which is organized around the Ten Commandments, to examine your conscience and then go to confession.

Questions for Reflection:

What is your response to Jesus’ question, “Do you love me?” Do you show your love for Christ in how you live? In what ways do you need to become more attentive to the commandments and the teachings of the Church?

Why Peters Denials Are Not the Last Word

I'm going to do something this month that I don't ever remember doing in the years I've been writing this reflection for the Council. I'm going to use someone else's reflection, and I'll tell you why.

Fr. Carney and I were e-mailing back and forth on a question I had Tuesday morning of Holy Week. Later that day, I ran into him at the new Sprouts and we picked up that conversation. Part of that conversation turned to forgiveness of sin and he asked me if I had read the reflection in the Magnificat for that morning. Now, understand I'm talking to a priest, so of course I couldn't lie, I told him I hadn't. He told me I should, he thought it was one of the best he had read in some time.

So, here it is:

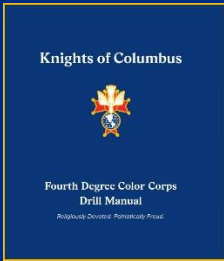

"There are many who, after a conversion from serious sin, cannot read of St. Peter's confident promise to Jesus at the Last Supper – I will lay down my life for you – without wondering if, like Peter, three imminent denials await them in the near future ... but as the Gospel testifies, the three denials of St. Peter did not end there. They were succeeded by an implacable divine pursuit and by three questions of love directed to Peter by the resurrected Christ in the early morning light at the shore of the Sea of Galilee.....

Every converted soul should take note of St. John of the Cross's insight that memory is purified by the virtue of hope. Certainly, past events do not change, including our sins. There is a fixed, factual truth to everything that has happened, in irrecoverable character to earlier choices, and effects that may be still consequential...in this sense, the past cannot be taken back. We may regret sin and repent, but events do not evaporate and disappear, and sometimes the memory of them causes disturbance. Yet the virtue of hope, rather than dimming memory, can cause a different kind of remembrance.

Looking back at sin, we can perceive what we had not realized in the past: God in an utterly personal manner was present in the perseverance of love through that lost time, keeping pace with us even as we may have plunged recklessly into sin. He was preparing our rescue even while we were oblivious to his love. Perhaps there were many quiet approaches to our soul even unknown to us. He never renounced us, and he never cast us from his gaze ... In the perspective of divine providence and of God's love for souls, all is open to possibility, nothing is closed or determined, and God is swift to repeat after every misfortune that he is not deterred by human mistakes.

Hope not only makes all things possible, but grants a vivid sense of the realistic likelihood that God will indeed accomplish all things he desires. And what he desires above all to complete is the surrender of our life to himself.”

This was written by Fr. Donald Haggerty, a priest of the Archdiocese Of New York, serving at St. Patrick’s Cathedral in New York City, and was in the Tuesday of Holy Week Magnificat.

In our day-to-day lives, we very often, when asked like Peter, say we would lay down our lives for Jesus, but I wonder if the better question isn’t, would I LIVE for Jesus? Peter denied Jesus three times, but professed his love for Him three times again when asked by Jesus. Peter spent the rest of his live living for Jesus, and then dying for Him.

And so my brothers, we say we will die for Jesus, and for our faith, but will we LIVE for Jesus, and our faith that God will always forgive our sins every time we ask? Is our faith strong enough to trust that all we have to do is ask with a pure heart?

Is it really just that simple?

Well, Jesus says it is .....

Message From Fourth Degree Director of Training

This past week I had the honor to serve at the wake and funeral for a fallen brother and friend. Our Grand Knight took a video of a few of our postings and texted them to me. Although I think we did a fine job, there were a few things we really need to work on, and the first thing was keeping in step with your partner.

Our entrance was fine; the departure from the posting with our members who just did a shift is where we got lazy. When working in pairs, make sure you keep the same pace as your partner, start off the same (left foot), keep in line with your partner, stop at the same time, use your peripheral vision to slow down or speed up, work with your partner after each shift to work out anything you know can be improved.

This should be practiced as much as the proper carry and present sword at a call out. We want to be sure that we honor our brothers and their wives by being as professional as possible at a call out.

At your next Assembly meeting, please take 15 minutes to practice keeping in step with your partner, starting off on your left foot, nice pace at entrance and departure (this is not a race to the back of the room). Honing your skills as a member of the Color Corps is essential and appreciated.

If you have any other questions on training your members, please email me at MJPKNIGHT9282@aol.com.

Fraternally,
Michael J. Porter
Fourth Degree Director of Training

Updated Drill Manual

The Drill Manual contains significant changes including certification of Color Corps Members in Marching and Manual of the Sword (Appendix A), as well as appearance standards (Appendix C).

Regalia Wear – the KofC Fourth Degree standard is “One Button” used on the jacket. See the Drill Manual for photographic examples. The Bottom Button of the jacket is not used.

Could the wear the Fourth Degree uniform blazer with other slacks and a regular tie when going out with this wife? The answer is: No

Our uniform was designed to be worn complete with the Fourth Degree blazer, official slacks, tie, and official Fourth Degree pin (PG-113). It also requires a white dress shirt with no button-down collar, black shoes, and black socks. However, it may be worn in social settings such as Knights of Columbus events, banquets, exemplifications, meetings, and church.

The other components of the uniform are used when participating in our color corps (color guard or honor guard). Those include the official beret with flash representing office (if any), white gloves, a service baldric, a Fourth Degree sword with scabbard. Flag bearers would not wear baldric or sword. (Note that the service baldric is either a general member baldric or else a specific color to indicate your current office held).

So, if you want to show your pride as a member of the Fourth Degree, then wear all the components according to the laws and rules of the Fourth Degree.

Letter to Mommy and Daddy after Abortion

Mommy... why did you
hurt me?

Daddy did you know?
Why didn't you fight for
my life?

Jesus said I would have looked just like you
Your hair, your eyes, and

smile
I know you didn't mean it
Mommy

Daddy I know you love me.

Daddy, you will never get to see me

You'll miss my first
words, you'll miss me
fall and get up.

Mommy, you'll never get to comb my hair or paint
my nails, you'll miss me
go to kindergarten

You guys will miss my whole life And I will
to....

But don't worry, I am with Jesus now.... Next time think about what you are doing, and who
you are hurting,

I AM A PERSON

Mommy, Daddy, I love
you, wish you would have loved me too

Celebrate the Gospel of Life

O Mary,
bright dawn of the new world,
Mother of the living,
to you do we entrust the cause of life:
Look down, O Mother,
upon the vast numbers
of babies not allowed to be born,
of the poor whose lives are made difficult,
of men and women
who are victims of brutal violence,
of the elderly and the sick killed
by indifference or out of misguided mercy.
Grant that all who believe in your Son
may proclaim the Gospel of life
with honesty and love
to the people of our time.
Obtain for them the grace
to accept that Gospel
as a gift ever new,
the joy of celebrating it with gratitude
throughout their lives
and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build,
together with all people of good will,
the civilization of truth and love,
to the praise and glory of God,
the Creator and lover of life.

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Michael McGivney

Founder of the Knights of Columbus

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Knights of Columbus®

Our Lady, Queen of the Knights, bless all the activities of our Order. Keep us true to our pledge, to extend the kingship of thy divine son on earth.

Through Thine intercession, win for us the grace, ever to exemplify in our public and private lives, the virtues that should characterize those especially dedicated to the service of the heavenly court. Make us always aware that as your Knights, we are constantly observed, our faith judged, and our Order appreciated.

Accept, O Mary, this renewed pledge of fealty and devotion, of Thy Servants, the Knights of Columbus.
