JULY 2025

SUPREME CHAPLAIN'S MONTHLY CHALLENGE

“Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers’ victim?” He answered, “The one who treated him with mercy.” Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise.” (Gospel for July 13, Lk 10:36-37)

In the parable of the good Samaritan, we again witness the Lord’s call to put our faith into action. Neither the priest nor the Levite stopped to render aid to alleviate the injured man’s suffering. The true act of love came from an unexpected source: a Samaritan, a person with whom a practicing Jew of those days would not ordinarily associate. Let us be good Samaritans when we encounter others in need, remembering that we are called to love and serve all people in need.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to serve as a good Samaritan to others with whom you might not normally associate — whether it be people who are homeless, the poor, the homebound or others.

Questions for Reflection:

Who is your neighbor? Have you found yourself ignoring those in need when it is inconvenient for you to assist them? How can your response to the needy you encounter more closely reflect the example of the good Samaritan?

Rerum Novarum and Antiqua et Nova

I watched with more than a little interest this last enclave for a new pope. As you know, on the third vote, Robert Prevost, born in Chicago, IL, was elected Pope. My first question was, (the same as a majority of Catholics around the world), – WHO IS ROBERT PREVOST !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Vatican II describes the Church today as a Missionary Church. Robert Prevost was and is a missionary priest. Let that sink in for a minute.

Cardinal Robert Prevost hit the ground running. He took the name Leo XIV because of his great admiration and reverence for Leo XIII, and as it was reported, specifically Leo XIII's encyclical "RERUM NOVARUM," sometimes known as "On the Condition of the Working Class." Sounds Marxist, doesn't it? In fact, in the encyclical, Leo XIII severely condemns Marxist Socialism and Communism and strongly supports the rights of labor to own personal property. He saw that as a reason for workers to strive to better themselves, their lives, and their families. He strongly supported the workers' rights to better working conditions and implored management to work towards the same goals. It is generally accepted that this encyclical greatly shaped the Church's teachings on social justice for the years to come.

A note of interest here, this encyclical was written over many years and released in May of 1891, 9 years after Blessed Father Michael McGivney founded the Knights of Columbus for many of the same reasons. I wonder if McGivney and the Knights weren't on Leo XIII's mind as he was writing this encyclical?

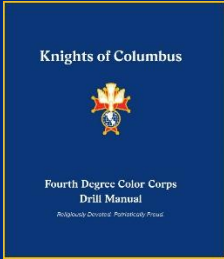

There is the link between the 1891 Rerum Novarum that defended the worker's body, wage, and dignity, and the Vatican's January 2025 Note, "Antiqua et Nova" that defends the worker's image, identity, and voice from technological co-option. Leo XIV is greatly concerned about A.I., Artificial Intelligence, and the impact it will have on thousands of working people around the world, and how will it be implemented by those who control it? And who are those people?

We're already seeing these bad actors in action. From the article this morning from Word on Fire, "AI Deepfakes and the Theft of Moral Authority – The Pope that Didn't Speak".

"On May 22, 2025, the Vatican issued a rare and pointed condemnation—not of a person but of a machine-generated lie. A thirty-six-minute video had circulated online in which Pope Leo XIV appeared to praise Captain Ibrahim Traoré, the controversial revolutionary leader of Burkina Faso. The video, complete with lip-synced movements and papal solemnity, seemed real to the average viewer. But it was a fake. The voice, the gestures, the words—all fabricated using AI techniques like morphing and deep synthesis. The pope had never spoken those words. He hadn't met the man. The speech, shared by a YouTube account called "Pan African Dreams," was the product of an artificial intelligence engine trained to speak in the pontiff's voice and move his image convincingly.

The article continues:

“To artificially generate papal speech, complete with gestures and tone, is not merely to simulate a public figure. It is to fabricate a false Magisterium—a shadow papacy of machines. Deepfakes of religious leaders do not merely spread misinformation. They invent a lie in the image of truth, an inversion of Scripture aimed not to illuminate but to confuse. The danger of AI-generated papal speech lies precisely in its mimicry of moral gravity. It is a false Gospel spoken by a non-person, designed to appear as the authentic Word.”

The third paragraph of Antiqua et Nova states:

“It is within this perspective that the present Note addresses the anthropological and ethical challenges raised by AI—issues that are particularly significant, as one of the goals of this technology is to imitate the human intelligence that designed it”.

It goes on: “This raises critical concerns about AI’s potential role in the growing crisis of truth in the public forum”.

Rerum Novarum spoke against the tyranny of Marxist Socialism in the Industrial Age, Antigua et Nova speaks against the tyranny of the Marxist Socialisms use of AI to destroy and re-image a society. An image of a false idol that replaces God with a new god, a golden calf, the state.

It’s the same enemy, just different times and different actors. And who is this bad actor?

We know him as The Great Deceiver.

We know him as Satan.

Message From Fourth Degree Director of Training

This past week I had the honor to serve at the wake and funeral for a fallen brother and friend. Our Grand Knight took a video of a few of our postings and texted them to me. Although I think we did a fine job, there were a few things we really need to work on, and the first thing was keeping in step with your partner.

Our entrance was fine; the departure from the posting with our members who just did a shift is where we got lazy. When working in pairs, make sure you keep the same pace as your partner, start off the same (left foot), keep in line with your partner, stop at the same time, use your peripheral vision to slow down or speed up, work with your partner after each shift to work out anything you know can be improved.

This should be practiced as much as the proper carry and present sword at a call out. We want to be sure that we honor our brothers and their wives by being as professional as possible at a call out.

At your next Assembly meeting, please take 15 minutes to practice keeping in step with your partner, starting off on your left foot, nice pace at entrance and departure (this is not a race to the back of the room). Honing your skills as a member of the Color Corps is essential and appreciated.

If you have any other questions on training your members, please email me at MJPKNIGHT9282@aol.com.

Fraternally,
Michael J. Porter
Fourth Degree Director of Training

Updated Drill Manual

The Drill Manual contains significant changes including certification of Color Corps Members in Marching and Manual of the Sword (Appendix A), as well as appearance standards (Appendix C).

Regalia Wear – the KofC Fourth Degree standard is “One Button” used on the jacket. See the Drill Manual for photographic examples. The Bottom Button of the jacket is not used.

Could the wear the Fourth Degree uniform blazer with other slacks and a regular tie when going out with this wife? The answer is: No

Our uniform was designed to be worn complete with the Fourth Degree blazer, official slacks, tie, and official Fourth Degree pin (PG-113). It also requires a white dress shirt with no button-down collar, black shoes, and black socks. However, it may be worn in social settings such as Knights of Columbus events, banquets, exemplifications, meetings, and church.

The other components of the uniform are used when participating in our color corps (color guard or honor guard). Those include the official beret with flash representing office (if any), white gloves, a service baldric, a Fourth Degree sword with scabbard. Flag bearers would not wear baldric or sword. (Note that the service baldric is either a general member baldric or else a specific color to indicate your current office held).

So, if you want to show your pride as a member of the Fourth Degree, then wear all the components according to the laws and rules of the Fourth Degree.

Celebrate the Gospel of Life

O Mary,
bright dawn of the new world,
Mother of the living,
to you do we entrust the cause of life:
Look down, O Mother,
upon the vast numbers
of babies not allowed to be born,
of the poor whose lives are made difficult,
of men and women
who are victims of brutal violence,
of the elderly and the sick killed
by indifference or out of misguided mercy.
Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love
to the people of our time.
Obtain for them the grace to accept that Gospel
as a gift ever new,
the joy of celebrating it with gratitude throughout their lives and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build, together with all people of good will,
the civilization of truth and love,
to the praise and glory of God,
the Creator and lover of life.

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Michael McGivney

Founder of the Knights of Columbus

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
