Saint John Paul's Prayer for Peace

Lord Jesus Christ, who is called the Prince of Peace,
who are yourself our peace and reconciliation,
who so often said, "Peace to you," grant us peace.
Make all men and women witnesses of truth, justice,
and brotherly love.
Banish from their hearts whatever might endanger peace.
Enlighten our rulers that they may guarantee and defend the great gift of peace.
May all peoples on the earth
become as brothers and sisters.
May longed for peace blossom forth
and reign always over us all.
- Pope John Paul II

SUPREME CHAPLAIN'S MONTHLY CHALLENGE

“Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison, and not minister to your needs?” He will answer them, ‘Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.’” (Gospel for Nov. 26, Mt 25:44-45)

The capacity to help those in need begins with clearness of vision. Are we sometimes blind to the plight of others? Do we find ourselves saying, “Lord, when did we see you...?” We must first see the “least ones” in our midst, and then recognize the face of Christ in them. Only then can we respond in love to provide the care they require. Lord, grant us the eyes to see.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to raise your own awareness of those in need by learning more about efforts to help the poor in your community. Second, I challenge you to support the Food for Families or Coats for Kids Faith in Action program.

Questions for Reflection:

Do you sometimes turn a blind eye to the poor? Do you try to recognize Christ in every human person you meet? Are you hesitant to share your blessings with others who have less?

From Worthy Lecturer SK Jimm White

I was going through one of my desk drawers a few days ago and came across a pocket New Testament I carried in my backpack when I was going to Santa Fe every day. Folded up in the back was a little prayer card, I think it came from Fr. Carney. Every once in a while, he hands these out, randomly and for no apparent reason, but I like it.

This one talks about trust in God and his eternal capacity to forgive us, again and again ...

Let me share this with you, Pope Francis writes:

“It is not easy to entrust oneself to God’s mercy, because it is an inscrutable abyss. But we must do it.

‘Oh Father, if you knew my life you would not speak this way’.

Why, what have you done?

Oh, I have done terrible things!

All the better! Go to Jesus: He would be happy if you told Him these things! He forgets, He has a special capacity to forget. He forgets, He kisses you, He embraces you and he says to you: Neither do I condemn you; go and from now on sin no more, (John 8:11)’.

That is the only council He gives you.

After a month, we are in the same situation ... let us return to the Lord.

The lord never wearies of forgiving: never! We are the ones who grow weary of asking forgiveness. And let us ask for the grace to never weary of asking forgiveness because He never wearies of forgiving. Let us ask for that grace”.

That was part of Pope Francis’s homily at Vatican City, on March 18, 2013.

And so, here we are, as Pope Francis says, after a month we are in the same situation!

Every time I go to confession, I hear my dad’s voice as I was growing up, “when are you going to learn?” And I fully expect at some point to hear the priest say “really Jimm, can’t you think of something new to sin about?” Instead, what I hear, every time, without fail, is: “your sins are forgiven”.

When we think of how hard it is for us to sometimes forgive, it makes me forever grateful for, and I am deeply in love with, our God, who so easily forgives.

In his comments on the Book of Joel in 406 AD, St. Jerome writes: “Do not despair of his mercy, no matter how great your sins, for great mercy will take away great sins”.

Let us never lose sight of that by thinking that whatever we have done can’t be forgiven: all we have to do is ask – again, and again, and again

Lord, make me an instrument of Your Peace:

Where there is
hatred, let me sow
love;

Where there is
injury, pardon;
Where there is
doubt, faith;
Where there is
despair, hope;
Where there is
darkness, light;
And where there is
sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek To be consoled as to
console;
To be understood, as
to understand;
To be loved, as to
love;

For it is in giving
that we receive, It is in pardoning that we
are pardoned,

And it is in dying
that we are born to
Eternal Life. Amen

Dear Brothers

Every winter, countless children miss school or are unable to play outside simply because they don't have a warm coat. Since launching our Coats for Kids program in 2009 we have provided nearly 1 million winter coats to children in need. None of this would have been possible without the generous donations of members just like you. Today, we are asking you to continue supporting Coats for Kids and much more through our United in Charity Annual Appeal.

As you know from the exemplification of our Order, we are stronger together. Through the United in Charity Annual Appeal, 100% of your gift goes to the good work of our Order, maximizing our charitable impact. By donating to our United in Charity Annual Appeal, you are joining thousands of our brothers in supporting our most vulnerable neighbors — children without winter coats, expectant mothers, those affected by natural disasters, wounded military personnel and others.

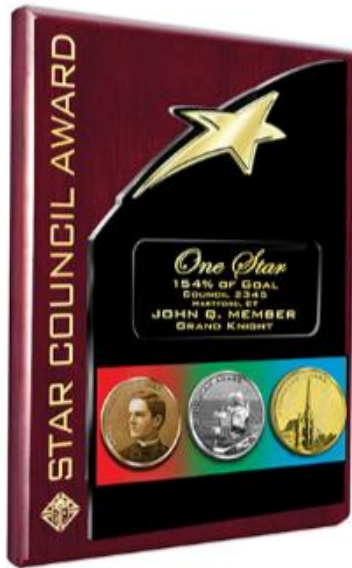

Please do not delay. Make a gift today to support our mission of charity.

Celebrate the Gospel of Life

O Mary,
bright dawn of the new world,
Mother of the living,
to you do we entrust the cause of life:
Look down, O Mother,
upon the vast numbers
of babies not allowed to be born,
of the poor whose lives are made difficult,
of men and women
who are victims of brutal violence,
of the elderly and the sick killed
by indifference or out of misguided mercy.
Grant that all who believe in your Son
may proclaim the Gospel of life
with honesty and love
to the people of our time.
Obtain for them the grace
to accept that Gospel
as a gift ever new,
the joy of celebrating it with gratitude
throughout their lives
and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build,
together with all people of good will,
the civilization of truth and love,
to the praise and glory of God,
the Creator and lover of life.

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Michael McGivney

Founder of the Knights of Columbus

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please report all favors received:

Saint Michael the Archangel,

defend us in battle,

be our protection against

the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;

and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host,

by the power of God,

cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits

who prowl about the world

seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

Knights of

Our Lady, Queen of the Knights, bless all the activities of our Order. Keep us true to our pledge, to extend the kingship of thy divine son on earth.

Through Thine intercession, win for us the grace, ever to exemplify in our public and private lives, the virtues that should characterize those especially dedicated to the service of the heavenly court. Make us always aware that as your Knights, we are constantly observed, our faith judged, and our Order appreciated.

Accept, O Mary, this renewed pledge of fealty and devotion, of Thy Servants, the Knights of Columbus.
