Saint John Paul's Prayer for Peace

Lord Jesus Christ, who is called the Prince of Peace,
who are yourself our peace and reconciliation,
who so often said, "Peace to you," grant us peace.
Make all men and women witnesses of truth, justice,
and brotherly love.
Banish from their hearts whatever might endanger peace.
Enlighten our rulers that they may guarantee and defend the great gift of peace.
May all peoples on the earth
become as brothers and sisters.
May longed for peace blossom forth
and reign always over us all.

DECEMBER 2023

SUPREME CHAPLAIN'S MONTHLY CHALLENGE

“Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in sight of all the peoples ...” (Gospel for Dec. 31, Lk 2:29-31)

The Jewish people had waited many centuries for God’s promise of a Savior to be fulfilled. Here, Simeon realizes the wait is over. Like Simeon, we can count ourselves among the fortunate ones who “have seen [God’s] salvation” in Christ, and we must proclaim this good news of salvation as he did. May we seek to share the gift of Christ with others in a particular way this Christmas.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to reach out to others — family, friends, acquaintances — and invite them to a celebration of Christmas, especially Christmas Mass. Second, I challenge you to participate in the Faith in Action Keep Christ in Christmas program.

Questions for Reflection:

Do you share the true joy of Christmas with others? Do you take time to invite others to deeper faith in the Christ Child? Do you speak of and celebrate the Advent and Christmas seasons in a way that reminds those around you of their true significance?

From Worthy Lecturer SK Jimm White

In the years we've been married, my wife Pam has diagnosed me, quit correctly I suspect, as ADD, and she says I've probably been that way all my life. Again, I suspect she's right. It is not uncommon for me to have five or six projects of my own going on around the house at the same time, along with what ever Pam has asked me to do, along with what ever projects I've got going for the hospital in Santa Fe.

I'll start mowing the lawn, get about half way through, now I think of something else, go to my reloading bench, size some rifle brass, and I think of something else, go get on the radio and listen to some morse code, thinking of something else, log into the hospital and check on one of my projects, think of something else. Now I'm in the back yard, oh look, there's the lawn mower in the middle of the lawn, I'll finish that later. Now I forgot where I was going.

And don't even get Pam started about my channel hopping – makes her crazy To say I'm easily distracted would be the understatement of the century. But I will tell you this, I am quite certain the devil understands my condition as well. In this journey of mine back into the Church, I often find it very difficult to remain focused on Mass or on my Liturgy of the Hours. It is not uncommon for me to stop in the middle of a prayer and re-focus, or to go back and re-pray the last prayer because I realized I don't remember what it just said, I wasn't paying attention. The same happens in Mass, I suddenly realize I'm not there and I have to refocus. I know Satan is using my ADD against me, to move me away from God, Jesus and the Church.

How do I combat that?

Well, it seems Archbishop Saint Charles Borromeo, (1538 – 1584), may have an answer. As I was praying the Office of Reading on the Saturday of his feast day, I came across this:

In his sermon to the last synod he attended, St. Charles speaks of a priest who complains that as soon as he comes into church to pray the Office or to celebrate the Mass a thousand thoughts fill his mind and distract him from God. Good to know I'm apparently not alone in this.

St. Charles asks: but what was he doing in the sacristy before he came out for the Office or Mass? How did he prepare? What means did he use to collect his thoughts and remain collected?

As he goes on, he offers the priest a solution – meditate on Jesus. He tells the priest to quiet his mind, to meditate before Mass, to think of what he is doing when he offers Communion, and to meditate after Mass.

How do I quiet my mind? I look on the cross and think of the sacrifice Jesus made. I imagine myself standing at the foot of the Cross that day, looking up at Jesus. Now I'm in place in my mind where Satan won't go, and I'm safe. When I come out, I'm quiet and I can continue my prayers or participate in the Mass.

It's different for everyone, but if you're ADD like me - and most of you will have to admit you are - find that quiet place, find what works to clear your mind, someplace Satan won't go because God and Jesus and the Holy Spirit are there with you.

Then, come back out ready to join the fight alongside Jesus against Satan.

By the way, I lost count of the number of times this month I got up from this reflection to go do something else before I finally got it finished this afternoon!

The Knights of Columbus Assembly 3309 US Flag Retirement Ceremony on November 11, 2023

Lord, make me an instrument of Your Peace:

Where there is
hatred, let me sow
love;

Where there is
injury, pardon;
Where there is
doubt, faith;
Where there is
despair, hope;
Where there is
darkness, light;
And where there is
sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek To be consoled as to
console;
To be understood, as
to understand;
To be loved, as to
love;

For it is in giving
that we receive, It is in pardoning that we
are pardoned,

And it is in dying
that we are born to
Eternal Life. Amen

THE 2024 WARRIORS TO LOURDES PILGRIMAGE

Every year, the Knights of Columbus helps wounded warriors by sponsoring a healing pilgrimage to the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Lourdes in France. Our 300 pilgrims join 14,000 warriors and pilgrims from 41 countries in seeking Our Lady's intercession for their suffering. They will benefit greatly from this five-day event of prayer, reflection, candlelight processions, Masses, and visits to the healing baths.

For more information on the Warriors to Lourdes Pilgrimage, click here.

Our wounded, ill, or injured pilgrims, their caregivers, and companions with financial need will not pay a cent for this healing experience. However, it costs us about $3,000 per person for transport, food, lodging, and materials.

Please consider having your council or assembly make a monetary contribution to support this wonderful program as we celebrate our veterans during the month of November.

United in Charity

Knights of Columbus®

Dear Brothers

Every winter, countless children miss school or are unable to play outside simply because they don't have a warm coat. Since launching our Coats for Kids program in 2009 we have provided nearly 1 million winter coats to children in need. None of this would have been possible without the generous donations of members just like you. Today, we are asking you to continue supporting Coats for Kids and much more through our United in Charity Annual Appeal.

As you know from the exemplification of our Order, we are stronger together. Through the United in Charity Annual Appeal, 100% of your gift goes to the good work of our Order, maximizing our charitable impact. By donating to our United in Charity Annual Appeal, you are joining thousands of our brothers in supporting our most vulnerable neighbors — children without winter coats, expectant mothers, those affected by natural disasters, wounded military personnel and others.

Please do not delay. Make a gift today to support our mission of charity.

Celebrate the Gospel of Life

O Mary,
bright dawn of the new world,
Mother of the living,
to you do we entrust the cause of life:
Look down, O Mother,
upon the vast numbers
of babies not allowed to be born,
of the poor whose lives are made difficult,
of men and women
who are victims of brutal violence,
of the elderly and the sick killed
by indifference or out of misguided mercy.
Grant that all who believe in your Son
may proclaim the Gospel of life
with honesty and love
to the people of our time.
Obtain for them the grace
to accept that Gospel
as a gift ever new,
the joy of celebrating it with gratitude
throughout their lives
and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build,
together with all people of good will,
the civilization of truth and love,
to the praise and glory of God,
the Creator and lover of life.

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Michael McGivney

Founder of the Knights of Columbus

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Michael the Archangel,

defend us in battle,

be our protection against

the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;

and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host,

by the power of God,

cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits

who prowl about the world

seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

Our Lady, Queen of the Knights, bless all the activities of our Order. Keep us true to our pledge, to extend the kingship of thy divine son on earth.

Through Thine intercession, win for us the grace, ever to exemplify in our public and private lives, the virtues that should characterize those especially dedicated to the service of the heavenly court. Make us always aware that as your Knights, we are constantly observed, our faith judged, and our Order appreciated.

Accept, O Mary, this renewed pledge of fealty and devotion, of Thy Servants, the Knights of Columbus.
