Saint John Paul's Prayer for Peace

Lord Jesus Christ, who is called the Prince of Peace, who are yourself our peace and reconciliation,
who so often said, "Peace to you," grant us peace.
Make all men and women witnesses of truth, justice,
and brotherly love.
Banish from their hearts whatever might endanger peace.
Enlighten our rulers that they may guarantee and defend the great gift of peace.
May all peoples on the earth
become as brothers and sisters.
May longed for peace blossom forth and reign always over us all.

Supreme Chaplain's Monthly Challenge

November 2026

"He will answer them, 'Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.'" (Gospel for Nov. 22, Mt 25:45)

Sin can be categorized in two ways, sins of commission and sins of omission. We ask God to forgive us of both kinds of sins in the main form of the Confiteor at Mass — "in what I have done, and in what I have failed to do." It is a sin to do evil, and it is a sin to neglect one's moral obligations. The true disciple sees the suffering Jesus in the poor, the sick, the oppressed and the lonely — and offers what he can to help.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to be aware of those in need around you, just as Blessed Michael McGivney did, and take action to serve those in need, perhaps by participating in your council's Knights of Columbus Coats for Kids program.

Questions for Reflection:

Who are the "least ones" among you? Do you recognize Christ in these "least ones" in need? In what ways do you respond positively to their needs, and in what ways do you ignore or neglect them? How might you do better in this regard?

An Argument for the Middle

"Children, it is the last hour; and just as you heard that the antichrist was coming, so now many antichrists have appeared. Thus we know this is the last hour.
They went out from us, but they were not really of our number; if they had been they would have remained with us. Their desertion shows that none of them was of our number"

1 John 2:18-19

In his speech some years back, Tyler Perry was accepting the Jean Hersholt Humanitarian Award at the 93rd Oscars and he used the opportunity to 'refuse hate". He talked about his upbringing in the Jim Crow south, growing up poor, and his mother who taught him to reject blanket judgement and reject hate, and later his days as homeless. He talked about his mother grieving over watching other children around her murdered simply for the color of their skin. I have to believe that his mother's words stayed with him because listening to him it is obvious the lesson he learned was that all that violence was born of hate, and so he chooses to "refuse hate".
Tyler Perry challenges us to refuse hate, Jesus commands us to love one another.

It's the same message.
Tyler finished his speech by talking about meeting in the middle. He talked about the middle is where listening is, where the healing is, where listening is, where conversation is, where listening is, where people can come together to find common ground, where listening is, away from the anger and shouting on the far left and far right, (I added the extra "where listening is" because it is important). He challenged anybody who chooses to refuse hate to meet him in the middle.

And so, where is the Church in all this? I was listening to Teresa Tomeo a while back and she was talking to a priest who was talking about a question he had been asked by a secular reporter: "Is the Church conservative, or liberal?" Teresa's immediate answer was "the Church is the Church"! And while that is the exact correct answer it bears some deeper conversation. The Church does not have two separate teachings; the Church's teaching is not dynamic and changing with the moral social interpretation of any given time. The teachings of the church are static and consistent, that form for us a moral standard that we should use to judge everything around us.

But I would say that on the one hand the Church could look very conservative, and on the other, very progressive.. and both would be true.

The Church's stand on abortion and euthanasia, on the moral teachings on homosexuality and transgender are, by every measure, very conservative.

On the other hand, the Church's work in Catholic Charities and Catholic Health Care would look, by most standards, to be very progressive, and this places the Church in the middle, exactly where it should be.

My brothers, there is a cancer in the Church today. That cancer is the voices of those administrators in the Church, and secular forces outside the Church who stand on the edges of the Church, and who are seeking to tear the Church apart. I wonder if those are the antichrists John is referring to.

To attempt to address any one of those issues individually only serves to put a band-aide on the symptom of the cancer. If we cure the cancer the symptoms will go away.

I believe the cure for the cancer is in the middle, where the listening is, where the healing is, where love is, where the conversation is, where we see the face of Jesus in everyone around us, where we accept Tyler Perry's challenge to reject hate and where we live Jesus's command to love one another.

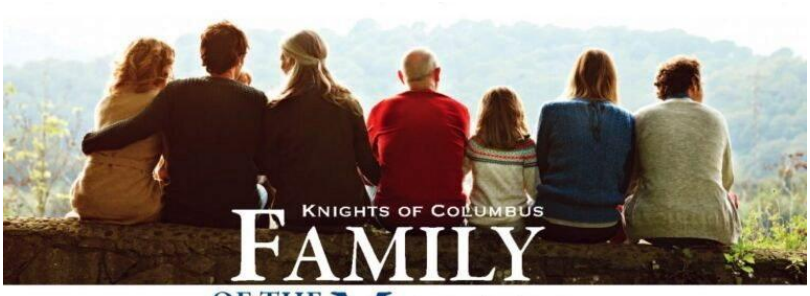

We, the laity, we the Knights of Columbus, are called to cure the cancer, we are called to meet in the middle and spread the healing teachings of Jesus and the Church. We are called to Evangelize from the middle.

Amen

National Flag Etiquette

Since many of us are celebrating important milestones in our countries, it is an ideal time to review the mandatory protocols for handling and displaying the flag. As patriotic members of the Fourth Degree, maintaining the highest standards of flag etiquette is our distinct duty.

Please ensure the following rules are strictly observed across all assemblies and events:

1. The Position of Honor

- The Flag's Right: The right side is traditionally the place of honor (representing the historic sword arm). The union of the flag is always given the honor point: the marching right, the flag's own right, or an observer's left.

- Sanctuary & Stage Placement: In a public auditorium or chapel, the National Flag must stand in advance of the audience at the speaker's or chaplain's right as he faces the room. Any other flags must be placed to his left.

2. Proper Display & Decoration

- Display Flat: The flag should always be displayed flat. It must never be festooned over doorways, tied in a bowknot, or fashioned into a rosette.

- Bunting: Never drape the flag over a speaker's desk or platform front. Use patriotic bunting instead, arranged with blue on top, white in the middle, and red on the bottom.

- No Alterations: No lettering, figures, or objects of any kind may ever be placed on or attached to the National Flag.

3. Processions & Color Guard Protocol

- Marching Order: In a procession, the National Flag takes the marching right (the observer's left) or stands directly in front of the center of the flag line.

- The No-Dip Rule: When carried by a Knights of Columbus Color Guard, the National Flag will never be dipped by way of salute or compliment to any person or object.

4. Multiple National Flags

- When flags of two or more nations are displayed, they must be flown from separate staffs of the same height.

Thank you for your dedicated leadership and for preserving the dignity of our National Colors across the Order.

Message From Fourth Degree Director of Training

Proper Present Sword

At a recent honor guard at my Parish, we had 14 Sir Knights that came early in the week for an Honor Guard.

How thankful we were for so many to show during the week. Our brothers that attended were mostly retired, and mainly over the age of 70.

We practiced our entrance, recession, and escorting the gifts for 30 minutes prior to the mass.

After mass the deacon serving was a Fourth-Degree brother Knight and member of our assembly. I asked, “how did we look?

His response was one I was waiting for, “You guys looked great, but your swords were everywhere”

When dealing with an honor guard of men who varied in age from the late 50’s to the early 80’s, how does the honor guard stay consistent?

Practice is certainly a top choice but also keeping in mind the strength of your members and knowing if any member may have lost the ability to hold a sword at attention for a long period of time. This would require the CCC, Marshal, or whoever is leading the honor guard to be sensitive to when you go to present, where you place your weaker members in line, and how long you wait before you line up. Let’s be sensitive to our aging members who have given a lot of time, effort, and energy to the Fourth Degree, we want them to participate as long as they can, but to also make sure that we are presenting ourselves in the best possible way. Any other suggestions you have would be appreciated and shared.

Just to refresh all of us, here is the proper present sword for all honor guards.

Fraternally,

Michael J. Porter, PSD,FM,FVSM
Fourth Degree Director of Training

Celebrate the Gospel of Life

O Mary,
bright dawn of the new world,
Mother of the living,
to you do we entrust the cause of life:
Look down, O Mother,
upon the vast numbers
of babies not allowed to be born,
of the poor whose lives are made difficult,
of men and women
who are victims of brutal violence,
of the elderly and the sick killed
by indifference or out of misguided mercy.
Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life
with honesty and love
to the people of our time.
Obtain for them the grace to accept that Gospel
as a gift ever new,
the joy of celebrating it with gratitude
throughout their lives and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build, together with all people of good will,
the civilization of truth and love,
to the praise and glory of God,
the Creator and lover of life.

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Michael McGivney

Founder of the Knights of Columbus

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
